

New Jersey, Once One of the Worst, Now Nearing Nation's Top 10 for Women in State Legislature

With Nancy Muñoz selected on April 27th to succeed her late husband in representing New Jersey's 21st Assembly District, the Garden State's legislature will have the 11th highest proportion of women in the nation - a huge improvement over the state's ranking of 43rd as recently as 2004. New Jersey's legislature will include 10 women in the Senate and 27 in the Assembly, or 30.8% of the 120 legislators. Nationally, women are 24.3% of all state lawmakers.

Read CAWP's full press release here.

Need Current Mailing Lists of Elected Women?

CAWP offers the most current, accurate lists of women elected officials. Lists include women state legislators in the 50 states, congresswomen, women statewide elected executives, and women mayors of cities with populations greater than 30,000. Lists include: name, state, office, district, party affiliation, race/ethnicity, and all available addresses (district, home, capitol), phone, fax or email.

Details on ordering are available here.

Visit CAWP on Facebook!

CAWP now has a Facebook page! Join the group to exchange ideas, express your views, hold discussions, share your experiences and photos - and simply to stay in touch.

Visit CAWP today on

facebook

---

Flex your political muscle.

A gift of $25 helps CAWP launch women's political careers.

please give today

---

Forward email

✉ SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to sinzdak@rci.rutgers.edu by cawp.info@rutgers.edu