Elección Latina

10:00 am – 10:30 am Welcome and Presentation: The Latina Advantage

10:30 am – 12:00 pm Owning your Leadership and Finding your Power

This workshop will explore the meaning of leadership and develop the personal skills of effective leadership; finding your power, self-awareness, social empathy and the intersectionality of diversity and inclusion. We will identify the qualities that will make you an effective leader and how to use them to accomplish your personal goals of running for office and getting results for the people you want to represent.

Ready to Run®

12:15 pm – 1:45 pm Welcome and Lunch Plenary Session: What Women Candidates Need to Know

Track 1: I'm Ready to Run, Now What?

Track 2: I'm Not Ready to Run Yet, But...

2:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Track 1: Launching Your Campaign

This session provides an overview of the key elements of a campaign, including assessing and establishing oneself as a candidate, developing a campaign plan, structuring a campaign organization, and voter contact.

2:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Track 2: Political Parties, Appointments, and Advocacy – Tools and Tips for Getting Started

This session, designed for those who are not ready to run but want to have an impact on important issues, offers an overview of the “nuts and bolts” of government and political parties in the state. Topics covered will include positioning oneself for appointment to a public board or commission, getting active in a political party, and using effective advocacy techniques. The first half of the panel will address how to become active in the political parties. The second section of the panel will cover positioning oneself for appointment to a public board or commission and learning how to be an advocate on legislative issues.
